

BHEL organises Motorcycle Rally as part of Vigilance Awareness Week

Aimed at spreading the message of this year's Vigilance Awareness Week – 'Eradicate Corruption – Build a New India', a motorcycle rally was organised by Bharat Heavy Electricals Limited (BHEL). The rally was flagged off by Mr. Atul Sobti, Chairman and Managing Director, BHEL, and Mr. Alok Ranjan, IPS, Chief Vigilance Officer, BHEL. Other senior officers of the company were also present on the occasion. A total of 50 motocyclists participated in the rally that commenced from the company's Corporate Office at Siri Fort to its Township at Sector 17, Noida, covering a distance of approximately 20 kms. The motocyclists along with pillion riders carried BHEL flags and several placards highlighting the message of the fight against corruption.
